

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Yreina Cervantez feels that she was positively influenced by the Chicano movement and the affirmative action that it encouraged. She earned a BA from UC Santa Cruz and an MFA from UCLA, and has worked actively as an artist and teacher in the community.

ASSISTANTS

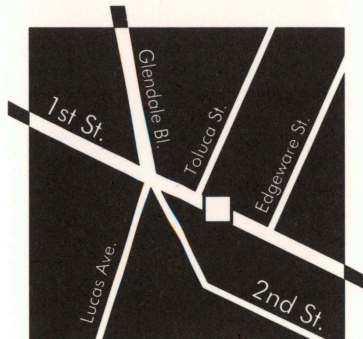

Claudia Escobedes, Erick Montenegro, Vladimir Morales and Sonia Ramos.

ABOUT THE WORK

"La Ofrenda" is a homage to the strength of the Latino people. It brings attention to the hardships of war and immigration and emphasizes women's roles through the central image, a portrait of the United Farmworker's Union leader, Dolores Huerta.

Card shows detail of actual mural.

THE LOCATION

Toluca Street, under the First Street bridge (near intersection of 2nd and Glendale)

SPARC

For more information you can contact our office at:
213 822-9560

